

Philip Flynn

Phil Flynn is a native of San Antonio, TX, and holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, TX. Currently an Assistant Band Director at Madison High School in the Northeast Independent School District, Phil returns for his second season as a member of the Crossmen Administrative Team in 2008.

Phil spent four years touring the country and performing in Drum Corps International. He was a member of the 2002 DCI Div. III World Champions-Revolution, from San Antonio, TX, before joining the World Championship Finalist, Boston Crusaders, from Boston, MA aging out in 2005.

While at Texas Tech, Mr. Flynn was a member of the award-winning "Goin' Band from Raiderland" where he served in as a drill instructor, Assistant Drum Major, and Head Drum Major in 2005. In his final semester, Mr. Flynn held the position of undergraduate teaching assistant where he had the privilege of writing drill and arranging music for the 400-member marching band.

In June of 2007, Phil began course work towards a Master's in Music Education at Texas Tech University and currently serves on staff at the Texas Tech Band & Orchestra Camp where he plans and organizes all social activities and teaches courses in Drum Major/ Leadership.

Phil's professional affiliations include the International Tuba / Euphonium Association, Kappa Kappa Psi, Who's Who Among American College Students, and Texas Music Educators Association.